THE YELLOW VIEW.

The Bilious And Jaundicial Writer Has

His Say.

Birmingham Age-Herald.

And now comes Montgomery.

The fans are anxious to see the rejuvenated Pretzels, and the man who is winning game after game with a second division team.

For there is no doubt in the world but that the Pretzels are properly classed below the middle line. Man for man, the visitors are inferior to the Barons, but they are playing the game and winning, which, we regret to add, the Barons are not.

There was a time when Birmingham had a second division team, the penmant winner of the Southern league. When the season opened the Barons, man for man, were incapable of winning the rag. But they got together, played scientific baseball, plucked out internal dissention, schism and heresy, and filed the pennant.

And Montgomery might do as much. And the writer of this column, in case Birmingham cannot turn the trick, would not regret to see Montgomery win the championship. The Montgomery Fans are not surpassed in enthisiasm. Montgomery players, personally, are good fellows, and there is not a more general man in the Southern League than Jimmy Ryan.

Shannon and Messiti are Montgomery catchers. Baxter. Perry. Pepe and Greminger compose the infield.

Ryan, Pearson and Henline, the latter being one of the fastest and most dangerous men in the South are the outer-gardeners.

Montgomery has a long string of pitchers, among the number being Van Anda, Helm, Cristall (each of whom has defeated Birmingham this season), Thomas, Bliss, Weems, Stackpole and others.

The above are the men who walloped Birmingham three straight games in the season's opening series. The Barons are anxious to retrieve those losses and impress on the visitors that they are some "pumpkins,"

It is pitiful and pathetic to see such a lot of puerility In cold, black type. If for no other reason than kindness to the poor fellow who writes such ravings The Age-Herald people should muzzle him and keep him from making such a holy show of himself.

For his information the following is pointed out to him: The fans of Birmingham have had their anxiety gratified in regard to seeing the "rejuvenated Pretzels" and the man "who is winning game after game with a second division team." Looks like that "second division team" gave somebody a headache yesterday—but then they were playing the baseball jokes of the century.

The Billies Win.

The Billies defeated Chisholm in a baseball game yesterday by a score of 3 to 1. The Billies won by fast fielding and terrific hitting and base-running. Chisholm played good ball but could not overcome the superior strength of the opposing nine. The batteries were, for the Billies, Harris and Harold; for Chisholm, Graham and Fuller. The Billies challenge any team in the city under 17 years of age. They may be reached through telephone No. be reached through telephone No.

BRAINSTORMS FOR THE BARONS

Montgomery Makes Six Runs in Ninth Inning.

Into the Storm Pit Quick

There have been Garrison finishes and Garrison finishes, but the whirlwind up in the poor benighted town of Birmingham yesterday would have made the immortal Snapper look like cents worth of badly dessicated prunes.

It is barely possible that never any more in this land of Dixie will any ball team make the finish that the Climbers made yesterday.

with the score standing 7 to 3 in favor of Birmingham up to the ninth inning, they batted out four runs, put Robertaille completely out of business and by playing the Birmingham misfits off their feet scored six runs and pulled the game out of the fire by a score of 5 to 7.

the game out of the fire by a score of 5 to 7.

Van Anda started in the game, Thomas not being exactly right, and with the support that he had behind him he did remarkably well—of the ten hits made off him two of them were infield hits that were beat out, only eight clean hits being made. His control was not up to his standard, for he gave three bases on balls and struck out three men—just how much this is due to "Pat Crow" Pfenninger is not known here.

three men-just now much this is due to "Pat Crow" Pfenninger is not known here.

The team behind him was playing a chrome colored kind of game and was not hitting. Robertaille pitching a fairly decent kind of game, though his support was on the bum, too. Along towards the shank of the afternoon the expected happened—the Climbers began hammering Robertaille, and if Harry Vaughn had used any judgment he would have yanked him out in the eighth inning. But he didn't—and therein lies the secret of the downfall of the Dubs, for a quartette of clean hits with a base on balls, Downey's two rank errors and the neatest kind of double steal put over six runs and won the game.

of double steal put over six runs and won the game.

Ryan went in to hit for Van Anda' in that famous ninth, and of course it put the pitcher out of the game. Stackpole worked the last half of the ninth and one clean hit and a scratch was made off him while he struck out a batter with the bases full.

Tom Messitr was hit in the head by Douglass's bat in the third inning, and Spike Shannon caught the game out. Shannon's hit starting the batting rally in the ninth.

Runs in First Inning.

Shannon's hit starting the batting rally in the ninth.

Runs in First Inning.

Persons hit clean, the first man up in the first inning, got to second on Baxter's hit to Demont and stole third. Robertaille didn't like the looks of big Greminger and promptly walked him. Then Perry squeezed Persons in with a hit to Downey, Greminger going to second, Robertaille saving himself another run by striking out Henline.

In the last half tney not only tied the score but went it one better. Molesworth walked and Houtz hit to Van Anda, who threw wild to second, Molesworth going to third and Houtz to second on Douglass's bunt, both scoring on Raub's drive to center. Raub stole second, but on Downey's fly to Perry there was a double.

In the second Hassett hit safe but Robertaille performed the feat of striking out the three men in the inning.

Demont started the last half with a two-bagger, going to third an Steve Ragan's fly to Hassett. Walters hit past third and Demont causted.

Greminger hit clean in the third but there was nothing doing. It was one, two, three in the last half but Messitt was hit by Douglass's bat, but there was nothing doing. It was one, two, three in the last half but Messitt was hit by Douglass's bat, Shannon going in.

In the last of the fourth the bottom fell out. Raub and Downey were both safe on hits to Greminger, and Baxter's wild throw to second of Demont's hit filled the bags. Reagan hit to center and Raub scored, a good throw of Hassett getting Downey at the plate. Demont and Ragan scored on Walter's hit to left. Walters got to third on Robertalie's hit, he latter getting out stealing second. Perry juggled Molesworth's hit and Walter's scored, Molesworth being thrown out stealing second.

The score was 7 to 1 and things looked becales.

juggled Molesworth's hit and Walters scored, Molesworth being thrown out stealing second.

The score was 7 to 1 and things looked hopeless.

Then the Climbers began their uphill fight. Van Anda settled down to some great pliching, one hit each in the fifth, sixth and eighth being all that Birmingham got after the fourthinning. In the sixth Greminger's two-bagger. Perry's hit and Hassett's fly put Greminger over, making it 7 to 2.

In the eighth Baxter drove one at Lou Walters that that worthy promptly juggled and then threw wild to first, the Moose going to second. Then it was the history of the game with Atlanta Monday—Greminger put the Moose on third with a hit to Demont and Perry cleaned up, making it 7 to 3.

Shame to Take the Momey.

Now comes the period at which it is a shame to take the money.

Spike opened it with a drive to left. Manager Ryan went into hit for Van Anda and struck out. Downey let Persons's hit go through his legs and Baxter's drive to right filled the bags. Then Greminger was for the second timed walked, Robertaile taking no chances, and Shannon was forced in, making it 7 to 4. Perry hit to center, Persons and Baxter scoring, leaving only one run to tie. Right here Vaughan sent Rip Ragan in but the Roaring one was unable to stop the rush. Downey Juggled Henline's hit and Greminger came in with the tieing run.

rush. Downey Juggled Henlines Int and Greminger came in with the tieing run.

The uproar in Jack Higgins's hall was one that made people on the street outside stop and wonder.

Pepe hit to left and Perry counted. Henline getting to third. Then Pepe and Henline put in another run by a double steal that scored Henline and took the breath away from the Birmingham people. Pepe getting out going to third, but the score was 3 to 7 in favor of Montgomery.

Stackpole went in for the last half. Walters was out on a hit in front of the plate. Meeks hit for Ragan and delivered, soaking one to right. Moles worth beat out a hit and threw wild to second the bags were full, and the sudden silence in Higgins's hall was startling. Stackpole was right on the job and struck out Douglass, Raub ending it with a fly to Baxter.

The score was:

CROKER'S FILLY WON

Rhodera Was Bred by the American Sportsman and is a Half Sister of the Grent Orby.

London, May 8.—The 1,000 guineas stakes at New Market today was won by Richard Croker's Rhodera.

Rhodera is a half sister to Orby, Mr. Croker's horse that won the Derby last year, is by St. Frusquin, out of the American mare Rhodero D., and bred by Mr. Croker.

Rhodera won the Dewhurst plate for 2-year-olds last November, defeating King Edward's Perrier by two lengths; in August won the London Drewry plate at Leopardstown, and in May the Cadogan plate at the same place. She is engaged for the Epsom Oaks but is not entered for the Derby.

By capturing this event Rhodera, Mr. Croker's brilliant 3-year-old filly, has added another classic to the trophies already procured by the American sportsman. She won today's event from a big field of eighteen horses, with comparative ease.

The event of today was doubly an American ylockey, rode the winner. He displayed such judgment that Rhodera turned the tables on the favorite, Kestidia, a horse that defeated the American filly in the Middle Park Plate last year, and that up to the precent time never had been beaten. Here he drove his mount to the front and romped home two lengths ahead of Bracelet, with Ardentrive third.

Mr. Croker's was present to see his filly win, and King Edward and the Prince of Wales also were among the big crowd that witnessed the American victory.
